Homestay Classification/Reclassification Scheme

The concept of 'Home Stays' and its approval cum classification system was introduced by the Department of Tourism as part of its promotional efforts. The idea was to provide a homely experience to the tourists and promote experiential tourism. Our culture and culinary tradition get promoted this way.

Based on the facilities and quality of the accommodation provided Homestay units are classified into three categories.

They are:

1. Diamond Homestay
2. Gold Homestay
3. Silver Homestay

The application fee for classification/reclassification of Homestays is Rs 3000 (Rupees Three Thousand only).

The validity for classification of homestays is for a period of three years.

Guidelines for the Classification and Reclassification of Homestay Units

- Homestay classification will be issued only in the name of owner of the house
- Classification will be done only for operational accommodation units.
- Leased or rented houses will not be considered for homestay classification.
- Maximum rooms that can be given for tourist accommodation will be 6
- Classification will be given to only those units where the owner along with his/her family is physically residing.
- Application for classification has to be submitted to the District Offices of Department of Tourism.
- Application fee of Rs 3000/- has to be remitted in the receipt head of Department of Tourism and submitted along with the application.
- Inspection Committee will examine the facilities based on checklist. As per recommendation of the committee, classification will be awarded
- The Classification/Reclassification Certificate of units will be issued by the Director, Department of Tourism.

- The Classification/Reclassification will be valid for a period of three years.
- The application for change to higher category will be considered only at the time of re-classification.
- The existing classification will be valid until reclassification, provided application for reclassification is submitted with the required fees three months before the expiry of the existing classification.
- The facilities provided and services offered will be evaluated against the checklist.
- The classification units will have to maintain required standards at all times.
- Director, Department of Tourism or an officer deputed by the Director, Department of Tourism or the concerned Joint Director/Deputy Director has the right to inspect homestays at any time without prior notice.
- Serious deficiency, if any, will be reported to Department of Tourism and the Department is free to take action including the cancellation of classification.
- Any change in the facility/service of the unit shall be reported to the Deputy Director, District Office, Department of Tourism within 30 days.
- In case of dissatisfaction of the remarks of the Classification/Reclassification Committee, the unit may appeal to Director, Department of Tourism, Government of Kerala within 30 days of receiving the communication regarding classification/ re-classification.
- Department of Tourism, Government of Kerala reserves the right to modify the guidelines/ terms and conditions from time to time.
- It is mandatory for the homestays to display Classification Certificate properly visible to the guests
- Application for reclassification should be submitted three months before the expiry date along with the prescribed fees. Otherwise it will be considered as fresh application.
- Food has to be prepared and provide to the guests on demand.
- C Form submission should be done in proper manner and in record.
